Aasha Gang Mediation Project

Hours: 37.5 hours per week

Salary: £20k - £23k (depending on qualification and experience)

Duration: 3 month probation, until the end of March 2013

The Osmani Trust is a voluntary youth organisation and a registered charity based in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. In April 2009, Brick Lane Youth Development Association (BLYDA) and Elite Youth merged to become one of the leading 3rd sector organisations in the Borough delivering a wide and unique range of services to young people and the community.

The Aasha Gang Mediation Project (a project of Osmani Trust) has been working with young people influenced by gang culture for the last decade. It is the pioneering project in Tower Hamlets that has been tackling the issue of gangs in our community. In order to strengthen its provisions in the Borough, we are seeking to recruit an individual who will be able to work with challenging groups of young people by designing and delivering effective interventions in a peer work setting. The post will involve direct contact with young people, regular outreach sessions every week, supporting young people in organising activities, events and more.

If you have experience of handling youth who have 'serious attitude', are from a disadvantaged background, display challenging behaviour and subscribe to 'thug life' mentality, then we are keen to hear from you. The ideal post holder will have the ability to work well under pressure, meet tight deadlines and targets within the agreed time and budget. You will need to have considerable experience of working in a youth work setting in accordance with the core values of youth work.

For an informal chat or if you would like an application pack contact Muhinur Choudhury on 020 7247 8080 or email Muhinur.choudhury@osmanitrust.org

The successful candidate would be subject to an enhanced CRB check and satisfactory reference checks.

12pm Monday 1st July 2012

Interviews will take place on or after:
